

Dear brothers and sisters,

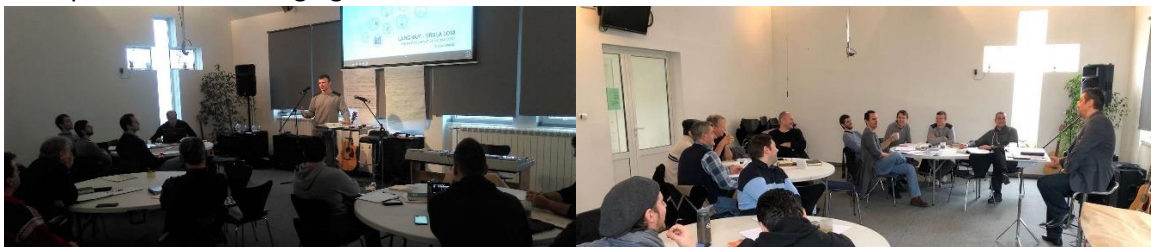

With this letter we want to inform you about happenings and answered prayers in period which is behind us, as well as about our plans for period ahead of us. Let us know how we can be praying for you.

January

- At the beginning of the year we did selection of families whom we included to our humanitarian project for this year. We help 13 families, monthly, with food parcels and hygiene. Beside helping them in practical way, we are using opportunities to share with them most important news- the Gospel.
- Mid January Slavko had meeting with his Langham Preaching colleagues, Mark Meynell and Sharon Mac. They were planning work of Langham Preaching in Europe in the future.
- Since January we made some changes in work of our Bible Study Groups and Prayer Meetings. Now we have 4 home groups whose attendance grew from 25% of church members to 75%. Prayer meetings are well attended as well, even there is more space for growth.

February

- Beginning of February Slavko was one of speakers at the Mission Week at University of Cambridge, UK. Events were well attended, and thorough week several dozens of students decided to accept Jesus as their Lord and Saviour. Slavko said that it was great to work again with Lindsay Brown, Michael Green, Andy Mayo, Niv Lobo... and many others.
- In February Slavko was leading two trainings of Langham Preaching, at the beginning of the month in Šibenik, Croatia, and at the end of the month in Sremska Mitrovica, Serbia. Seminars were well attended and enthusiasm among participants was encouraging.

Langham Preaching training in Serbia

- In the second half of Feb we held another „Circle of Women“ evangelistic meeting. Meeting was well attended and women had a chance to hear good news of the Gospel.

„Circle of Women“

- We reorganised work of our Preachers Club which is now meeting monthly and has 8 participants from our church.

March

In second week of March our church organised visit to Bosnia of evangelist Peter Gladwin from UK. Peter was sharing his testimony in 5 cities of Bosnia and Herzegovina: Tuzla, Doboj, Banja Luka, Mostar and Sarajevo. At each evangelistic event we had people who prayed sinners prayer. Video recording of the event in our church you can watch at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tn8WsUBapVI>

„Evangelistic events in Mostar and Sarajevo“

- In third week of March there were Langham Preaching European consultation held in Sarajevo. National coordinators from European countries participated at consultation, it was blessing to hear how God is using Langham across the Europe.

Langham European Consultations, Sarajevo

- In last week of March we held Langham Preaching seminar level 2 for Bosnia and Herzegovina. There were participants from several cities and denominations across Bosnia.
- 25th of March we had joint service of Sarajevo Evangelical Churches. It was great blessing to worship Lord and to have fellowship with brothers and sisters from other churches of Sarajevo.
