Open Door Church

In the evening of the 16th July at 7pm until 9pm we are running an event to help Christians share their faith at work – never an easy thing to do. This is a free evening where a team will share ideas of how we share our faith at work alongside stories of what has happened when people have done so and God has blessed their attempts. As our culture keeps changing we need to find ways to get around peoples view of Christianity and show them who Jesus really is and how he changes lives. If you want some inspiration on how to talk about your faith or show it more clearly in what you do at work come along and see what you'll learn. No ticket is needed but to help us with numbers please click that you are coming on the Facebook advert which is found here if you can <https://www.facebook.com/events/430290884427710/> If you just turn up on the night you will be welcome too.
