Christians Against Poverty

Christians Together against Poverty

Over 20,000 people are now debt free with the help of CAP.

Last year, 4,031 people could not access CAP's help as appointments were fully booked or there was no centre nearby. To meet the increasing need, we need to double the number of people we can see through a growing network of churches. To make the necessary changes now, we urgently need to raise £1.9 million. Otherwise, we'll be forced to turn away more and more people in need.

When I first met Jim, he'd fallen into debt after having to give up work due to ill health, his family home had been repossessed and his marriage had ended due to the strain of financial worries. He'd become totally isolated, living alone in unsuitable emergency accommodation, relying on Universal Credit to survive, drowning in debt. I said to Jim, 'From this day forward, you are not alone,' and I immediately saw the weight begin to lift. I can't bear to imagine where Jim might be now if we'd had to turn him away.

Let's end UK poverty together

UK poverty is at a critical level. The number of people in need of help has surged, and it's getting harder to meet the rapidly growing need

Collect - Fifth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose Spirit the whole body of the Church is governed and sanctified: hear our prayer which we offer for all your faithful people, that in their vocation and ministry they may serve you in holiness and truth to the glory of your name; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

As kids grow, so do the pains of parenthood. Patterns of miscommunication and resentment can cause damage over the years, leaving parents and adult children with a fractured relationship. Confused, hurt, and sometimes angry, mums and dads can struggle to know where to turn for help and where to look for hope.

With grace and empathy, author Gaye B. Clark comes alongside readers bearing the weight of parenthood. Encouraging readers to view themselves as image bearers of God first and parents second, Clark shifts readers' focus to their relationship with Christ while showing how the relationship between parent and child can be a catalyst for understanding the gospel. Loving Your Adult Children examines the fruit of the Spirit in relation to parenting adult children, offers study questions for reflection, and shows how walking with God is the best next step for struggling parents.

- Appeals to Parents of Adult Children: Empathetically addresses the pain and suffering associated with parenting
- Lasting Gospel-Centered Hope: Shifts readers' focus from their horizontal relationship with their children to their vertical relationship with Christ
- Biblical Perspective: Discusses each fruit of the Spirit and how they apply to relationships with adult children
- Reflective: Study questions provide tools to help readers apply the book's content
